Kuala Lumpur, 18 February 2019

Maxis Berhad is pleased to announce the appointment of Gokhan Ogut as its new Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to take office on 1 May 2019. He will be reporting to the Chairman and the Board. Gokhan, who was appointed as the Chief Operating Officer of Maxis since 1 Sept 2018, takes over from Robert Nason, who is currently the Interim CEO of Maxis.

“We are pleased to welcome Gokhan as CEO of Maxis. We are confident that with his vast experience and focus on innovation and growth, he is the right person to drive our new strategy,” said Raja Tan Sri Arshad, Chairman of the Board of Maxis.

Gokhan brings to Maxis his wide management experience in the telecommunications and fast moving consumer goods industries. Gokhan was previously the CEO of Vodafone Turkey. Before Vodafone, Gokhan was in senior marketing as well as general management roles with a number of large and well-known companies like Danone and Procter & Gamble, holding positions that had domestic as well as global responsibilities in Turkey, US and France. Gokhan holds a Bachelor of Science in Industrial Engineering from Boğaziçi University, Istanbul, Turkey and a Master in Business Administration from University of Illinois, Chicago.

Robert will remain on the Board as a Non Independent Non Executive Director, and will be appointed as Chairman of the Business and IT Transformation Committee and a member of the Audit Committee. The Board has provided for a smooth transition period between Gokhan and Robert which will expire at the conclusion of Robert’s contract as the Interim CEO of Maxis on 30 April 2019.

“On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Robert for his valuable contributions as interim CEO, and for putting in place a strong foundation and a Management team poised to take Maxis forward in its next stage of growth,” Raja Arshad added.
